EXPERIENCE

Artnet

9/2014 – 6/2017
in New York

Graphic Designer

I designed and produced marketing materials, including advertising for both print and screen, promotional email templates and landing pages for art auctions, partnerships and events. I was also responsible for the design and production of larger projects such as analytical reports on the art market, company media kits presented to third parties, and various visual presentations for both internal and external use.

Freelance

1/2014 – present
in New York

As a freelancer, I conceptualize and produce visual identity systems, information graphics, websites, print material and presentations for a variety of small firms and individuals.

Prophet

5/2013 – 8/2013
in New York

Design Intern

I worked closely with designers and branding consultants in executing, producing and presenting cohesive brand identity proposals, information graphics and visual presentations to clients including Abbott Laboratories, T. Rowe Price and Pentair.

Stark Design

2/2013 – 5/2013
in New York

Design Intern

At this small design studio, I collaborated on visual design concepts for an independent maple syrup producer and maintained the company's resource of design inspiration material. I also assisted the studio's staff with physical production and photography of design projects.

CatAList:

Occidental

College TV

4/2010 – 5/2011
in Los Angeles

Graphic and Web Designer

As my first major foray into design, I created a visual identity system for Occidental College's nascent television network, which consisted of a redesigned network logo, typography and color guidelines, screen graphics, on-campus promotional material and logos for student-created programming. I also designed the network's website and oversaw its day-to-day operations and maintenance.

New York

Transit Museum

6/2010 – 8/2010
in New York

Development Intern

Working in the museum's development and curatorial departments, I helped maintain the database of museum donors, catalogued and sorted historical artifacts from the museum's archive, produced and narrated informational slideshows and photographed and provided assistance at key museum events.
